Write a letter to your friend telling him/her about a visit to a museum or historical monument. Describe its beauty, importance, etc.

Ans. 21, Ram Nagar 2 Rajaji Road,
My dear Ritesh

Last month, I had a chance to go to Delhi. My uncle lives in Basant Vihar. I spent a week in Delhi. I spent with my uncle. Delhi is an old city. There are many historical buildings in and around it. One day, we want to see the Red Fort. It was Sunday a large number of men, women and children were there. We bought our tickets and entered in the main gate.

We spent about three hours inside the fort. We saw Diwane-e-Aam and Diwani-e-Khas the Rangemahal and the museum. Soon we felt tired and came out and took a taxi back to Basant Vihar. It was a wonderful visit.

Convey my best regard to uncle and auntie, and love to Pinky.

Comprehension

Based on NEP 2020

A. Write 'T' for true and 'F' for false :

- Ans. 1. T 2. F 3. T 4. T 5. F 6. T.

B. Answer the following questions :

- Ans. 1. If we free caged birds directly it may harm them. This can be proved by the following instance from the story: Recently, there was a case where a girl saved all her pocket money, bought a cage full of birds and set them free. The girl had expected the birds to fly to their nests at once but they just flew about confused. A few minutes later, to the girl's horror, the beautiful birds were attacked and killed by crows.
2. The situation is worse if the birds have been born and brought up in captivity, that is, in a cage. These birds have never had to find their own food and water, as the owner would always provide those. Even their wing muscles are not properly developed, as they've never had the freedom to fly. They will not know what to do with their freedom.
3. What we need to do is to stop the trapping and caging of birds altogether. There are laws in our nation against this activity, and there are government and voluntary organisations whose function is to stop such activities. So the next time you see caged birds, inform one of these organisations. They will confiscate the birds, take them to a proper rehabilitation centre.
4. Rehabilitation centres are the government and voluntary organisation whose function is to stop birds caging gentility.
5. Visible changes can be noticed in the birds in a few days. Their coats will be glossy, their eyes bright, their bodies would have filled out and they will be chirping away in delight, unless they were injured when they were first trapped.
